Aims and Scope:

School Leadership & Management is an international, refereed journal which publishes articles, reports, news and information on all aspects of the leadership and management of schools. The journal is fundamentally concerned with the improvement of leadership and management practice in schools.

School Leadership & Management particularly welcomes:

- articles that explore alternative, critical and re-conceptualised views of school leadership and management
- articles that are written for academics but are aimed at both a practitioner and academic audience
- contributions from practitioners, provided that the relationship between theory and practice is made explicit

Contributions from practitioners are particularly welcome, provided that the relationship between theory and practice is made explicit.

Prospective authors should consult the notes for contributors, either at the back of the journal or on the web site for manuscript submission guidelines. Authors are also encouraged to contact members of the editorial board prior to submission.

Editorial correspondence should be addressed to the Deputy Editor, Alma Harris, Institute of Education, University of Warwick, CV4 7AL, UK (email: Alma.Harris@warwick.ac.uk, and copy to Louisa.Hopkins@warwick.ac.uk).

Ideas for Special Features and State of the Art Reviews should be addressed to Megan Crawford, Institute of Education, University of Warwick, CV4 7AL, UK (email: Megan.Crawford@warwick.ac.uk).

Books for review should be addressed to Professor M. Brundrett, University of Leicester, Queens Building, Barrack Road, Northampton NN2 6AF, UK.
